

“But Rupert, I don’t understand,” said Myrtle. “You don’t have a mother or father.”

“I have parents but I don’t live with them,” explained Rupert. “It takes a lot of work to take care of children. My parents have a hard time taking care of themselves right now. They are not able to take care of a child also. I know if they were able to take care of me they would.”